DRIVE DONS INTO CITY.

Americans Won Great Victory Today.

WE HOLD ALL OUTPOSTS

Retreat is Cut Off—American Loss Is Very Heavy.

With the American army of invasion, near Santiago, July 2—Special—The American army, after furious fighting lasting all day, drove the Spaniards into the city of Santiago, and the American troops last night encamped near the trenches, and on the outposts held in the morning by the Spaniards.

The victory was most complete. The Americans drove the enemy from Caney, destroyed the Spanish fort at that place, and held the village.

Another division captured the heights of San Juan. The loss of the Americans was heavy, numbering about four hundred killed and wounded. The Spanish loss was also very heavy, but cannot be given just yet in figures.

The Americans attacked the Spanish from three divisions. Generals Lawton and Wheeler's forces assailed Caney. Gen. Kent's men advanced on Agudore's men, while General Garcia and the Cubans attacked Caney from the southeast. The other divisions of the army advanced upon Santiago from the east.

The Americans presented a solid front from the coast to Santiago's northern defenses, and the line never wavered. The men were filled with eager enthusiasm and the officers had hard time restraining them from impetuous rushes.

The Spaniards fought desperately to hold Caney, but in vain. Slowly but surely the Spaniards had to give ground, and darkness found the Americans presenting a solid front from the coast to Caney, thus hemming the Spaniards in the city and cutting off all means of retreat to the interior of the island.

The detachment sent back was composed of Cubans. They will not only cut off the Spaniards retreat, but will also prevent the arrival of Spanish reinforcements. This action hems the Dons in most effectually and the land forces, like Cervera's fleet, are bottled up.

General Wheeler Ill.

Gen. Wheeler is seriously ill. His temperature is high, but despite this fact the old warrior forced his staff to convey him to the front on a litter, where he directed his cavalrymen when they received orders to advance.

During the engagement, the Spanish fleet directed its fire at the American troops, but even at the short range, did not do heavy damage owing to poor gunnery.

Washington, July 2—Special—Secretary Alger confirmed the report this afternoon that the battle at Santiago had been resumed this morning.

Capture City Tomorrow

Off Santiago, July 2—Special—American troops are practically in possession of everything outside of Santiago and that city will be ours tomorrow.

The firing of the cruisers, Gloucester and New York into the Spanish ranks was terrific. The Suwanee's fire was directed to a flag floating over a Spanish fort. After three attempts a big shell struck the corner of the fort, knocking it down and taking the flag with it. This was the signal of great cheering on the part of both the water and land forces.

Gen. Pando Arrives

Plays Del Este, July 2—Special—Gen. Pando has arrived near Santiago with five thousand men. He made a forced march from Manzanillo without being disturbed except by Cuban guerrillas. A force of Cuban cavalry is marching to intercept Pando's relief force. There is a constant exodus of starving people from Santiago.

OUR LOSSES ARE HEAVY

General Shafter Asks For Hospital Ship and Surgeons

Washington, July 2—Special—The following message was received from General Shafter this morning.

"I fear that I have underestimated our loss. I must have a fully equipped hospital ship at once, and additional medical supplies and officers."

SHAFTER.

Major General Commanding

Some of the Dead.

Washington, July 2—Special—Unofficial information from the front would indicate that the American losses were severe. Detailed information cannot be had yet, but reports say that the following is the roll of dead and injured in the one battery of the Second artillery.

Killed:

HELM, Private soldier.

UNDERWOOD, Private soldier.

Wounded:

HEAVY, Sergeant.

VEIL, Private

CORNFORD, Private.

KEENE, Corporal.

GEN. SAAFTER'S REPORT

Says the Engagement Was Heavy and the Casualties Number 400—Not Many Slain.

Siboney, July 3—Special—General Shafter has sent the following report to Washington:

"Had a heavy engagement today, which lasted from 8 a. m. till sundown. We have carried their outworks and are now in possession of them.

"There is now about three-quarters of a mile of open between my lines and the city.

"By morning troops will be entrenched and considerable augmentation of forces will be there.

"Gen. Lawton's division and Gen. Bates' brigade, which have been engaged all day, is carrying El Caney, which was accomplished at 4 p. m.

"Will be in line and in front of Santiago during the night.

"I regret to say that our casualties will be above 400. Of these not many killed."

"SHAFTER."

WISCONSIN CREW THIRD

Pennsylvania Wins the Great Race With Cornell Second, and Columbia Fourth.

Saratoga Lake, July 2—Special—The great 'varsity boat race occurred this morning, and was a victory for the Pennsylvania crew. Cornell finished second, Wisconsin third and Columbia fourth.

Corbin Is Pleased.

Washington, July 2—Special—Adjutant General Corbin was interviewed this morning and said: "The old bulldog," referring thus half affectionately to the distinguished commander of the Fifth corps, "is lying right there with his teeth in their neck only waiting the coming of daylight to finish the work he has so magnificently begun. The engagement yesterday was very heavy for a preliminary fight, but it scores a decided victory for us. I regret to know that Shafter has sustained so heavy a loss, but we may hope that there are not, as he says, many killed. It is, however, pretty certain to be true that the loss of an army in an engagement like that of yesterday, where the battle line extended over several miles, will be much heavier than is indicated by the first reports. It is manifestly impossible, in cases where the battle has raged all day and until dark, to ascertain with definiteness the loss sustained."

At the local telegraph offices today with every outgoing telegram a documentary 1 cent stamp was required. It will hereafter be necessary for the senders of messages to attach stamps to their messages and to cancel the stamps in accordance with the law by writing their initials and date across them. The Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies and the cable companies operating from New York have arranged for a partial supply of stamps at their offices for sale to the senders of messages who may not be provided with them. The officials of the companies say, however, that they are not prepared to provide stamps in sufficient quantities to cover all the messages sent from their offices.

SHIPS HELP THE ARMY.

Sampson's Men Silence Forts On Land.

ROUTED THE SPANIARDS

Seamen Then Shell The Enemy With Effect.

On board Scripps-McRae Press association dispatch boat, with Sampson's squadron, July —Special—Last night it was understood that there was to be a general attack in the morning, and today the men were impatient to begin. Shortly after seven o'clock shots were heard inland and the New York, the Gloucester and the Sufanne moved in shore east of Morro castle. They then engaged the new batteries the Spaniards had erected there. They drew into easy range and the batteries were literally torn to pieces. Their fire died out and all rest of the day they were silent, showing that all their guns must have been dismounted. Then the ships devoted their attention to the Spanish infantry opposing the American advance. Shells were dropped in the Spanish lines, and must have done great destruction.

During the engagement the Vesuvius fired many dynamite shells, and the projectiles are thought to have done immense damage.

The accuracy with which the American seamen used their guns was remarkable and but few shells flew wide of the mark.

The Spanish fleet did not direct much fire at the American ships, devoting its energy to shooting at the troops.

Naval Officers Happy.

Washington, July 2—Special—Naval officers are happy. They say the American navy and soldiers are supreme. The battle establishes pretty conclusively that the Spaniards are no match for the enthusiastic aggressive troops. They were driven from their strong entrenchments in front of Santiago back into the city and the Americans are now occupying the entrenchments and awaiting only the dawn to resume the greater battle which will result. It is confidently believed by the war officials that the fall of Santiago will occur before Sunday night, and perhaps before nightfall today.

Cut Off the Retreat.

London, July 2—Special—A news agency here says the American war department has received confirmation of the statement that General Shafter has sent two thousand men back to Aserrado for the purpose of preventing Spanish reinforcements reaching Santiago from Manzanillo and cutting off the retreat of the troops penned in at Santiago.

Caney Is Captured.

Playa Del Este, July 2—Special—A courier just in from the scene of the fighting says that Caney has been captured. Aquadores has fallen, and the attack on Santiago has been resumed all along the line.

Morro Castle Doomed.

Washington, July 2—Special—It is now stated that the occupation of San Juan heights opens the way to Morro castle, and dooms that stronghold to final capture by the victorious American invaders.

Our "Civilized Foes."

London, July 2—Special—Spanish agents here say that when the Americans enter Santiago those who survive will find that city's street were mined.

Admit the Defeat.

Madrid, July 2—Special—An official dispatch admits that five battalions of Spaniards were defeated yesterday.

TO CHOOSE COOPER FOR CONGRESSMAN

MILWAUKEE TELEGRAPH HAS KIND WORDS.

Says the Present Incumbent Is Entitled to and Will Receive a Renomination—Useful to State and Nation
—All Republicans Hope He Will Win.

The Milwaukee Telegraph has these kindly words for Congressman
Henry A. Cooper:

"As the day approaches for the nomination of a candidate on the republican ticket to succeed Congressman H. A. Cooper in the First Wisconsin district it becomes more and more plainly apparent that Mr. Cooper will be his own successor. If there ever was any danger that he would be displaced, that danger has passed. It would not require even a sober second thought to convince nearly every republican in the First district that it would be most unwise to excuse from duty in the house of representatives a man who has been so faithful to duty, whose honesty no one doubts, whose industry every one in the district should appreciate, and whose fitness for a national representative is beyond question. Mr. Cooper's record in congress constitutes a bright page in the history of the First district, not to mention the state. His sturdy honesty, his marked ability, his fine oratory, gave him high rank the first term he was in congress. His geniality and his ability have given him a high place with the leading men in both branches of congress. He was recognized from the very start as a man who would prove not only useful to the district but elected him, but to the whole state and nation.

On Important Committees
"He has served on important committees and always as one of the best workers on these committees. Everything he does is done with great care.
He entered upon his public service years ago in the full belief that a man should work for his country, his district, his state and his nation, with the same fidelity, industry and determination to round up an honest measure, that he would in looking after his own personal interests. He has for three terms represented a district whose interests are varied, and of all its interests important. The educational interests of the First district in the state, and the same may be said of the tobacco interests. It is also important in the direction of manufacturers and particularly so in the cities of Racine, Janesville, Beloit and Burlington.

Strong Protectionist.
Mr. Cooper was born and brought up a protectionist, and his efforts in behalf of this great American principle—in behalf of that protection which has been invaluable in the building up of this mighty country—has led thousands to join him in battling for it.

"But we need not go into details in speaking of this well known and thoroughly tried public servant, who has served the people of Racine county as district attorney, the state as a senator in its legislature, the district and the nation three terms in congress, during which time he has made several great speeches, speeches that have attracted national attention.
Henry A. Cooper is known, and well known, in every nook and corner of the First district, and every candid man who speaks of him will say that he is manly, clean, able, honest, trustworthy, and that he has been a credit to his district, to his state and of great value to the nation. When a district has such a man in congress it is extremely difficult to find an extremely difficult to find an excuse for setting him aside for any other man.
His experience in congress is capital for his district and the state.

Learned the Profession.
"He has learned the profession of a congressman; he knows now better how to perform the important duties assigned to him than he did at his second election, or his third. Mr.
Cooper is a progressive man. His constant aim is to meet the requirements of the office.

"The Milwaukee Telegraph, like some other papers and not a few people, did not agree with Mr. Cooper in his earnest plea that the republic created by the insurgents of Cuba should be recognized by the United States, but this paper, and so far as our knowledge goes, no one doubted the honesty and good intentions of Mr. Cooper in his battle in behalf of the Cuban republic.

"The great mass of republicans in Wisconsin, we feel sure, join in the body of Henry Fohrman was found in a cedar swamp near here yesterday strangled to death, and it is believed he committed suicide. He had re-were three feet from the ground, looped shoe strings around his neck and fastened the ends to the suspenders. He had evidently been dead two days. He had acted strangely for some time past. Mr. Fohrman kept a hotel, grocery and saloon at Calumet resided in the county for forty-five years.

A NOTABLE ADDRESS

The Wisconsin Bench and Bar publishes the address delivered by Judge John E. Bennett at the meeting of the State Bar association held in connection with the celebration of the state semi-centennial. The address was scholarly and dignified and the listening lawyers pronounced it an effort of unusual interest to them. The worthy judge's ripe experience had equipped him with peculiar ability for an address of this character, and his historical data is of great value. Charming reminiscences delightfully told, added interest to the facts set forth, and the address was one of which the well known jurist may well feel proud.

The Gazette regrets exceedingly that the demands upon its columns consequent to the war has prevented the publication of the address in full, but hopes to give its readers the benefit of the judge's wisdom later.

The Milwaukee Telegraph says Congressman Cooper will surely be renominated and that he is entitled to the honor. Since the gable about "war records" has been silenced by a presentation of the facts in the case, the critics of the able congressman have had nothing to talk about, and as The Telegraph says in closing the article—which appears in another column—"The great mass of republicans in Wisconsin, we feel sure, join in the hope that Mr. Cooper will receive a unanimous renomination, knowing full well that that intelligent district will select him by a large majority."

General Bancroft inspected the First Wisconsin regiment at Jacksonville the other day. The regiment for the greater part of the hour was drilled in movements by independent command of battalions, mass movements by First or Second battalion and every movement in close order pertaining to regimental drill. At its conclusion General Bancroft addressed the regiment, complimenting officers and men on their work. He said the regiment was the best drilled he had seen in his many years' experience and the maneuvers were executed with the precision of veterans and resulting in proper distances.

Madison State Journal.—The LaFollette people are running under heavy expense these days. They are flooding the state with letters, circulars and newspapers, publishing a newspaper, are holding secret conferences in various places, have expensive headquarters at the Plankinton hotel; and yet Mr. LaFollette is shouting wildly about the dangers of using money in politics. How sad he must feel.

Wausau Record.—Does Mr. Pullen wish to be understood that his faction which has for its aim the exaltation of E. M. LaFollette and his associates and the political death of all other republicans, means to bolt the ticket if they are not allowed to disavow? This is an important admission surely, and the rank and file of the party throughout the state will bear it in mind. Political assassins are not wanted.

Nearly all of the aides who helped marshal a parade at Milwaukee were military men, yet the greatest warrior of all the Cream City's population was not among them. General—but let it pass.

Constant Reader—You are right, and also wrong. A. B. Hall does resemble the Vesuvius in that his guns are fired by compressed air, but Hall's projectiles are filled with fog, while those of the Vesuvius are loaded with gun cotton.

The strike of the stereotypers has not affected Janesville's other very excellent paper, either, and you will find the Recorder on sale in the morning, as usual. The man who takes Janesville's two papers—The Gazette in the evening, and the Recorder in the morning—will get the news of the world, so all the other newspapers are superfluous, anyway.

Republican congressional conventions have been called in Wisconsin as follows:

Third District—At Spring Green, Aug. 9.

Sixth District—At Oshkosh, Aug. 11.

Seventh District—At La Crosse, Aug. 11.

Janesville has been flooded with free specimen copies of The Superior Evening Telegram containing a lot of A. B. Hall's balderdash. While the LaFollette machine does not believe in free railway, express and telegraph passes, it evidently does believe in free Telegrams.

The city of Oshkosh is liable for the damage done and losses incurred during the strike. Whether or not the city must pay families for the "loss of society and services" consequent to the necessary loading around, however, has not yet been decided.

The report that a large number of lives were sacrificed yesterday in the war between the Chicago Times-Herald and the Chicago Tribune, is denied. The engagement was severe, but bloodless.

If Admiral Camara's ships are in need of repairs, he should push on to Manila with all speed as Admiral Dewey is in readiness to fix his fleet for him with neatness and dispatch.

General Shafter's men will make an attempt to capture the stations from which the submarine mines are operated, and then Sampson can get at the Spanish fleet and Deweyize it.

The LaFollette machine must be "using money to influence voters." Thousands of copies of a newspaper cannot be distributed all over the state without heavy expense.

General Shafter is not a "lightweight," either physically or in a military way. He weighs 312 pounds in time of peace, and several tons in time of war.

When the Pennsylvania democrats disowned Bryanism, the convention went wild with enthusiasm. Straws are good weather vanes.

A Missouri candidate for congress is named "Oowherd." It would be more appropriate if this nomination had been made in New Jersey.

It is quite likely that some fire works were discharged in the Chicago newspaper office today.

No person who is located north of Santiago has any right to complain of the weather.

The people were surprised, but, in all probability, so were the stereotypers.

The Chicago papers have suspended publication for the Fourth.

Great Britain to the powers—"Shiny on your own side!"

And Admiral Sharkey also bottled his opponent.

It is perhaps unnecessary for The Gazette to explain that owing to the rush today, a large amount of news-matter and advertising is unavoidably omitted.

What's the secret of happy, vigorous health? Simply keeping the bowels, the stomach, the liver and kidneys strong and active. Burdock Blood Purifiers do it.

TRAVELING men and their friends held high jinks at Idlewild Park today. They went up on the Mayflower and under the cool shade of the oak trees they traded fish stories and watched venturesome youths like W. E. Clinton, J. H. Nicholson, G. B. Evans and J. W. Clark play base ball. Immediately after dinner there was a punching bag exhibition by W. W. Porter.

THERE will be a grand celebration on the Fourth at Edgerton, the strongest attraction being the two free base ball games in the morning and afternoon between Milwaukee and Edgerton.

THERE was but a small attendance at the monthly meeting of the Rock County Medical society last evening, and some of the papers and discussions on the program had to be omitted. Even the doctors feel the heat.

Attend the meeting and you will be repaid.

REV. W. A. HALL will speak tomorrow evening at Court Street M. E. church on "How to Spend Your Vacation." Perhaps next to the topic "How to Get a Vacation" this is the most timely. A large audience gathered last evening and a good one is expected tomorrow evening. Mr. Hall's sister, Miss Grace E. Hall, from California, formerly of Prof. Morrison's Los Angeles choir, will sing morning and evening in addition to the quartet music.

CHICAGO PAPERS ALL TIED UP

Great Strike in the Mechanical Department

STEREOTYPERS WANT MORE PAY AND LESS WORK

Publishers Stand Together and Agree

To Suspend Until All Can Issue Again at Once—Situation Unparalleled in the City's History—What the Men Demand—Employes Gave Almost No Warning and Bosses Are Mad.

Chicago, July 2.—[Special]—The publishers are now endeavoring to secure stereotypers from other cities, and the wires were kept hot this morning with telegrams. Up to noon, the situation was unchanged.

Janesville people had to get along without their Chicago papers today, and it is unlikely that any will be received if the resolution of the publishers' association and the stereotypers' union hold together. No morning papers were published, but the situation may change so that an afternoon paper may be got out.

The trouble arises from the demands made by the stereotypers' union upon the publishers at short notice. They were arbitrary in the extreme, according to the views of the publishers and they stand a unit in the refusal to grant a single thing that was demanded.

What The Men Demand.

The stereotypers asked first that their hours of labor be reduced from eight to seven hours a day and wages increased from $3.25 to $4.00 a day with 75 cents an hour or fraction thereof for overtime, and that apprentices be confined to one for each office.

The publishers, after understanding the nature of the demands and the mandatory character of the way they were put, decided unanimously to refuse them. In consequence it was agreed by all at the meeting that no member of the association would make an attempt to get out a paper till all were in position to do so.

Thereupon, work in newspaper offices all over the city began to let up for the night.

Editors abandoned their desks and talked in excited groups of the situation, such a thing as a day passing without a paper being published never before having entered into their speculations.

When the Trouble Dates From

The present trouble really dates back to the first of May, when the annual contract expired. Negotiations have proceeded more or less irregularly in regard to the matter, but neither side was conciliatory. Within a day or so the men have formulated their demands in the shape of an ultimatum as stated above, as they were submitted to the publishers Thursday. The publishers considered the demands and agreed that they could not concede them and even went to the length of an understanding that if it was necessary, that they would suspend publication. This was communicated to the stereotypers early yesterday morning, and nothing more was heard from the men until last evening, when they brought in an ultimatum at 8 o'clock that if their demands were not immediately conceded they would not report for work.

Stand Taken by the Newspapers.

It is said to be the first time in history since papers began to play so important a part in daily affairs that every paper in a large town decided to suspend from labor troubles or any other cause. The publishers await with equanimity the opinion of the public on the affair, for it is simply meeting a condition that if persisted in both labor organizations would eventually lead to absolute domination in the newspaper business as in everything else. The newspapers being regarded as pioneers in every line, thought it was taking a step in the right direction by accepting the gage of battle as thrown down by them.

What the Strikers Say

One of the strikers said: "We don't want anything about the strike sent outside the city. There is no further grievance other than the demand for increased pay and shorter hours. The pay the men are getting is not equal to that in St. Louis, New York and Boston. In Boston the men get $5 a day."

The typesetters were ordered out this morning as there was no need of setting dead type.

Five Thousand in Idleness

The stereotypers who have gone out number in all about 200 but they have perhaps thrown into temporary idleness about 5,000 people.

In the meantime "When you see it in the Gazette it is new and true." Now is the time to subscribe.

Return The Cuckoo.

To whom it may concern:—Will the person who removed a cushion from my buggy kindly return the same? A return of the article unlawfully taken would certainly be a relief to a burdened conscience throughout all of the years of the coming life, to say nothing of the beyond. Do not let your soul carry this load into eternity for there you may never be able to lay the burden down however weary. G. H. Davey.

The concert by the Imperial band at court house park last evening was highly successful both in an artistic sense and as to the crowd it attracted. The park was thronged with thousands of people of every age, sex and condition in life, and each number of the program was liberally applauded. The patriotic selections were especially popular, and called forth the most enthusiastic plaudits.

ARCHIE CRAWFORD, the well known and popular vocalist who has for several years been a favorite member of the First M. E. church choir, was surprised at his Chatham street home last evening by a visit from a number of his friends. They brought with them a handsome bicycle which they presented to Mr. Crawford as a testimonial of their esteem for his services in the church, which have been given without money and without price. Mr. Crawford was completely surprised by the gift but soon recovered his self possession and entertained his unbidden guests with his accustomed cordiality. An hour or two was spent in social converse interspersed with music and all departed in the best of spirits. The relations existing between Mr. Crawford and the members of the congregation have always been the most cordial and this incident will serve to cement a friendship that has long been a source of pleasure to both congregation and singer.

CHURCHES WILL BE COOL PLACES

PEOPLE MAY OBTAIN RELIEF FROM HEAT BY ATTENDING

Clergy May Call Attention to the Graduates of the Nation Whose Anniversary is Near at Hand—There Will Be Much to Interest Intelligent American Citizens.

Even the excitement incident to the first great battle in Cuba should not be sufficient to keep Janesville citizens from the sanctuary. And although the weather is warm in all places just now it is doubtful if cooler places can be found the churches, through which the breeze, if there are any stirring, blow unimpeded. Tomorrow many of the clergy will preach upon themes relating more or less intimately to the great day that follows—the anniversary of the declaration of American independence. Of course they will draw spiritual lessons from the occasion, and point out the way by which men in every condition of life can secure independence from the thrall of sin. It is just possible—and the possibility is not to be deplored—that some will take occasion to exult a little over the greatness this country has achieved since it threw off the yoke of England, and point to the gratifying fact that the two nations are now the warmest of friends while the younger of the twain is engaged in a struggle for the liberation of a neighboring people from a master far more oppressive than England was a hundred and twenty years ago. Following are the announcements for Sunday services:

First Baptist Church—Rev. Arthur O. Kempton, pastor. Preaching by the pastor both morning and evening. Subject of morning sermon, "Our Will." Sunday School and Y. P. S. O. E. as usual. This will be the last Sunday before the pastor's vacation. The church will be closed on the 10th and 17th to give the members an opportunity to visit sister churches.

Mary Kimball Mission—100 South Jackson street. City Missionary Mary Kimball, pastor. Sunday school at 2 p. m., preaching at 3:15 and 7:45 p. m. The evening service will be followed by the sacrament of the Lord's Supper. Meetings Wednesday and Friday evenings. Everybody welcome. Come if you are late, and can enjoy only a part of the service.

Services at First M. E. Church—J. B. Smith, pastor. Morning worship 10:30. Theme, "Christian Citizenship." The service will be of interest to voters. Evening service, installation of Epworth League officers. Special music and short lecture. Sunday school 12 m. Junior League 4:30. Senior League 8:15. The People's Class meeting 9:45.

WORKING ON BRAINS

Food Specialist Brings Out a Novelty

A food expert at Battle Creek, Mich., connected with the Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., has produced a food especially intended for rebuilding the brain. It is a well known act among physicians that examination of perspiration and urine will tell whether the individual has been actively using the brain.

Brain work exhausts the phosphates which appear in the excreta above mentioned. Administration of inorganic phosphorus or phosphates does not readily supply the waste, for nature demands that phosphates be made up and blended in food which she furnishes. Advantage has been taken of this knowledge and a scientific selection of part of the grain has been made, and these have been put through mechanical processes parallel to the processes through which food is passed in its management by the human digestive organs. Therefore the new food is not only ready to serve without cooking, but it has passed through the process where the starches have changed to grape sugar, and that with the proteids, organic phosphates, etc., are at once ready to be quickly absorbed and turned to use in vitalizing and nourishing the parts of the body like brain, solar plexus and the delicate nerve centers.

The new food has been given the name of Grape-Nuts, and far from being a "Crack's Food," "Cravie's Food," or anything of that sort, it is a crisp, sweet novelty, charming to the athlete, brain worker, epicure or invalid.

Grape-Nuts can be had of grocers, and a trial dish for breakfast will be found a pleasant experience.

DO NOT CHARGE MEN WITH THE CLOTHES

FAKE STORY ABOUT SOLDIERS IS EXPLODED

Colonel Schadel Says He Can Authoritatively Deny the Statement—Rock County Soldiers Are All Well—Madison Officer Resigns—Gossip From Jacksonville Camp

Jacksonville, Fla., July 2.—[Special]—All is well here, and all of the Rock county soldiers are enjoying good health.

Jacksonville, July 1.—The statement recently printed in The Milwaukee Journal that the clothing turned over by the state when the troops left Camp Harvey will be charged to the men's clothing account this year, is denied here by Col. Schadel. The colonel has received a telegram from the governor assuring him that his men need not worry, and that the clothing will not have to be paid for out of the men's clothing account.

Lieut. J. P. Joachim of Co. G, Madison, today tendered to Capt. Quentmeyer, his resignation. Ill-health is the cause. Lieut. Joachim will be succeeded by Sergt. John Oebach, second sergeant. W. Klein will be promoted first sergeant.

As to recruits and all men who have not had actual experience in the use of the rifle, Gen. Hancock has ordered that and officer or private skilled in marksmanship be detailed in each company to give instructions in aim drill and later at shooting on the range.

Letter from Capt. Hanson.

Dr. James Mills has received a letter from Capt. Hanson in which he says that the troops are well fed and healthy. The work, he says, is not too hard, and the evenings are delightfully cool. All the soldiers are anxious to go to the front, and the captain says that the indications are now that the regiment will leave before long. General Lee often visits the camp. The soldiers all like him, as he is not severe, but converses with the men as if he was one of them.

Letter from Capt. Hanson.

Dr. James Mills has received a letter from Capt. Hanson in which he says that the troops are well fed and healthy. The work, he says, is not too hard, and the evenings are delightfully cool. All the soldiers are anxious to go to the front, and the captain says that the indications are now that the regiment will leave before long. General Lee often visits the camp. The soldiers all like him, as he is not severe, but converses with the men as if he was one of them.

SOME WELL KNOWN PEOPLE.

The New Spanish Minister.
Senor Polo de Bernabe, the new Spanish minister, is no stranger in Washington, as he was attached to the Spanish legation in our national capital for eight years. It was there that he first entered the diplomatic service, being sent as an attaché in 1878. In 1879 he was promoted to the office of third secretary and held that position until 1881, when he was transferred to the foreign office at Madrid. Senor Bernabe was born in Madrid. He comes of a family whose members have frequently figured in Spanish diplomacy.

POLO DE BERNABE.

Commands the Flying Squadron.
Commodore Winfield Scott Schley, chosen to command the flying squadron of fast cruisers for the protection of our seaboard, has for some time previous been serving a shore detail as chairman of the lighthouse board. But the most of his naval service has been passed afloat. He was in command of the Great relief expedition, and it was due to his unflinching energy that the survivors were found as soon as they were. He was captain of the Baltimore when several United States sailors were mobbed in the streets of Valparaiso.

New York's School Chief.
William H. Maxwell, recently elected central superintendent of the school system of the city of New York, has been for ten years at the head of the Brooklyn schools. He was selected for this important position after Dr. Draper, president of the University of Illinois, positively declined to accept the position. Dr. Maxwell was elected to his third term as superintendent of public instruction in Brooklyn last June and has been one of the most successful.

Our Exposition Commissioner.
Thomas W. Cridler, the third assistant secretary of state, who has been sent to Paris as special United States commissioner to the exposition, succeeds the late Major Moses P. Handy. He has been in the state department under several administrations and has worked his way up from a humble clerkship to his present responsible position. Mr. Cridler is about 45 years of age. Unlike most diplomats, he is frank, blunt and plain spoken. He seldom conceals his thoughts and usually says exactly what he means.

An Important Naval Officer.
Commander Francis W. Dickins, chief of the bureau of navigation, is Secretary Long's right hand man. His bureau is the one through which all or-

It transmits all code or cipher dispatches, receives all reports and has complete control over the personnel of the service, including the enlisted men. Commander Dickins is from Dutchess county, N. Y. He was graduated from the Naval academy in 1864 and while a mere boy had his "baptism of fire." He has had an unusually active career.

Bought From Brazil.
The cruisers Amazonas (now New Orleans) and her sister ship, Admiral Brea (now Albany), which were pur-

The two vessels are described as follows: Displacement, 3,400 tons; length over all, 330 feet; breadth, 43.0 feet; depth, 16.5 feet; speed, 20 knots; indicated horsepower, forced draft, 7,600; coal capacity, 700 tons; coal consumption for each horsepower at full speed per hour, 2.1 pounds, or about eight tons of coal per hour.

She Has Beauty and Talent.
Mrs. Van Rensselaer Cruger is one of the few society women who write books which are really good. She writes under the name of Julian Gordon, and for a long time the public at large supposed that the brilliant stories of fashionable life which appeared from time to time were written by a man. Mrs. Cruger is the wife of Colonel S. Van Rensselaer Cruger, a member of one of the oldest of the Knickerbocker families. Both he and his wife are fond of society and often entertain the most exclusive of New York's fashionables.

E. C. Slawson, of Louisville, Texas, writes that one box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills was worth $50.00 to him. It cured his piles of ten years' standing. He serves others liberally. It also cures eczema, skin diseases and obstinate sores. People's Drug Co., East Milwaukee street.

From One Point of View.
"Woman," she said, oracularly, "should have all the privileges that man has. She is showing her ability to do all that he can do in the business world."
"Yes," he admitted, "she is rapidly bringing herself down to his level."
The more she thought of this remark the stronger became her determination to keep out of all suffrage movements.—Chicago Post.

He Meant the Bird.
Some time ago a worthy man got a curious present from a sea captain. It was a fine specimen of the bird which the sailors call the "laughing jackass," and he was not a little proud of it. As he was carrying it home he met a brawny Irish navy, who stopped and asked him:
"Phwat kind of a burrd is that, sorr?"
"That's a laughing jackass," explained my friend, genially.
The Irishman, thinking he was being made fun of, was equal to the occasion, and responded, with a twinkle of the eye:
"It's not yerself, it's the burrd Oi mane, sorr."—Tit-Bits.

Hopeless Case.
"Why do you allow your wife to rule you as if you were a baby?" indignantly asked Mr. Meeker's brother. "You ought to have a voice once in awhile in the management of the household. Assert your independence!"
"Independence!" echoed Mr. Meeker, bitterly. "She won't even grant me autonomy!"—Chicago Tribune.

The Difference.
"You have called me a liar!" shouted the angry citizen to the offensive citizen, "and you will live to regret that speech, sir."
"That jest shows the difference in fellers," remarked Cowboy Bill, who happened to be present. "When a man calls me a liar he don't live to regret it."—Pick-Me-Up.

How She Guessed.
Maud—Don't you think these new pictures of me are lovely?
Marie—They are, indeed. Who took them—De Camera?
Maud—Yes. What made you think he took them?

The Passing of Zor.
Another communistic experiment has failed. Zor is to go the way Brook Farm went. After existing for nearly 80 years this settlement, the most unique and picturesque of all such enterprises, is soon to be disbanded. For almost fourscore years the Separatist Society of Zor has existed in Tuscarawas county, O. The impending dissolution is due to a lack of young blood, the introduction of modern ideas and the accumulation of debts.

His Reverence.

"Oh, my, yes. He's abroad most of the time and in giving his views he is almost prodigal."—Harlem Life.

ABOUT SKIRTS.

How They Are Cut, Lined and Trimmed This Season.

Silk, fallo or taffeta is the preferred lining for skirts, and it may match either the color of the gown or that of the trimming. Sometimes an entirely different color is used for very elegant gowns, but it should be selected with some reference to the shade of the petticoat. Women who can indulge in every luxury have a different petticoat to go with each gown, the petticoat matching the lining, but persons of more moderate means must fall back on generally harmonious colors, so that the various items of their wardrobe may be combined without offending the eye. Linings of black taffeta are much worn, especially for skirts which are often worn, as black goes with all colors and does not easily appear soiled.

Among new skirts is one composed of three flounces cut in form—that is, cut in a curve, so that while there are no gathers at the top the flounce is full at the lower edge. This skirt is not, of course, made to trail. The trailing skirts now coming ments, now made appear over white silk, light pink over deep rose, blue over green and all sorts of curious results supervene.

Another fresh decoration is an embroidery composed of tiny ruffles of taffeta, tulle or mousseline de sole. Upon satin evening gowns these little ruffles are applied in the form of circles, arabesques and other motifs, suggesting the markings on moire silk.

The picture shows a new model for an evening gown for a young girl. The upper half of the skirt and the entire bodice are of shirred crepe de sole in a rose pink shade. The lower half of the skirt consists of a circular flounce of pink peau de sole. Around the square décolletage is a sort of collar of guipure trimmed with very small ruffles of black velvet. A cluster of pink roses is worn.

An Old Lady On a Wheel.

Came into the store yesterday and went out into the Children's Department. Ever noticed her on the street? One of the best riders in town, and she DOESN'T wear Bloomers.

But as she passed out she stopped and fingered some SWEATERS in our Furnishing Goods Department and remarked that she "wished she could wear them." We have them as low as 50c. A fine EGYPTIAN COTTON Sweater which has proved the most popular thing of the kind ever seen in the city. Twenty dozen just in. Better see them. An all wool Sweater, blue, black, maroon, $1.00. Fine groceries for fine people.

Five reasons why many of our first families go out of their way to buy here:

Do you know that many of our customers are the wealthiest and most particular people in this town? They are people who have tried other stores—large ones, maybe—but were never fully satisfied until they came here.

FIRST—because we sell "guaranteed groceries"—groceries guaranteed to be best in every way. No auction groceries; no seconds.

SECOND—because we give you your money back the minute you want it—the minute our goods fail to please.

THIRD—because our groceries are fresh and clean and pure. Nothing is allowed to grow old or old looking. We think we have the model grocery of Janesville.

FOURTH—because our prices are as low as any other grocer who sells good groceries. The rich customer usually wants things as low-priced as the most economical customer.

FIFTH—because we pay more attention to quick delivery service than others, and send up anything at any time good naturedly.

If you are not fully pleased with your present grocer, send us a trial order. You can go back to him again—if you choose.
